

Programme

Specific health issues or areas of health work are highlighted in RED where relevant

Thursday 15th June

18.00 Registration opens in Volcano Theatre on High Street

19.00 – 21.00 Welcome Event

Re-Live theatre performance/presentation Dementia plus posters and installations

Drinks and nibbles

Friday 16th June

8.30 – 8.50 Registration at The Waterfront Museum

Live Music Now

9.00 – 10.00 Keynote Speakers

Welcome and scene setting from Baroness Eluned Morgan AM, Phil George Chair of Arts Council Wales & Andrew Davies Chair of ABMU Health Board

9.45 Coffee & Welsh cakes

11.00 – 13.00 Four Parallel Sessions

Volcano Theatre

Performances

Jodie Allinson exploring Voicelessness in Health Stroke

Sorting the Sock Draw by Eirwen Malin Parkinsons

Reading Room, School of Architectural Glass, Alex Building

Narrative Therapy Workshop

Pam Blamey Art Therapist & Leanne Dodd from Central Queensland University

Dynevor Art School Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion

Stories in Clinical Training

Amanda Page from Mount Carmel College of Nursing, Ohio

Clive Weston from Swansea University School of Medicine

Jo Odell from the Foundation of Nursing Studies

Rachel Leyland from Plymouth University School of Medicine

Clod Ensemble Performing Medicine

Mark & Suzanne Marnocha Medical College & College of Nursing, University of Wisconsin

Glynn Vivian Art Gallery Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion

Patient Stories

David Ambrose Cardiac patient & founder of Beyond the Borders Storytelling Festival

Duncan West from Pollen Health

Kimberley Littlemore from Pocket Media

Tim Hunt from Patient Opinion

Emma Collins from the Village Storytelling Centre

Digital Storytelling in Health & Social Care Naomi Sunderland & Nicole Matthews from Australia

13.00 – 14.30 LUNCH at Tapestri Cafe or Volcano

Diagnosis Game Neurological conditions & Book Launch in Volcano Theatre

14.30 – 16.30 Four Parallel Sessions

Volcano Theatre

Performances Women's Health

Killer Cells by Rachel Miller Miscarriage

All about my Tits by Anna Suschitzky Breast feeding

Open Discussion

Reading Room, School of Architectural Glass, Alex Building

True Cut - Making sense of our mistakes - a play by Dr David Alderson Medical Error

Dynevor Art School Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion

Storytelling and Health Research

Nick Andrews from Swansea University Older people

Allison Ward from University of Northampton Dementia

Katherine Hall from University of Otago Chronic fatigue

Peta Bush from London Metropolitan University Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome

Val Bogan from Dublin Institute of Technology Diagnosis

Clare Clement Integrated Patient Stories Research Methods

Glynn Vivian Art Gallery Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion

Stories in Mental Health

Alette Willis & Lily Asch from University of Edinburgh

Bart de Nil from FARO Flemish interface centre for cultural heritage

Cath Heinemeyer & Jamie Towe from York St John University

Victoria Hume from University of Witwatersrand, Johannesburg

Karen Ingham from Swansea School of Medicine and Swansea Art College

Jess Wilson practising nurse in forensic mental health and ABM Storyteller in Residence

Friday Evening

19.00 – 21.30 Keynote Performance at The Waterfront Museum Cancer

STOLEN a brand new work by Daniel Morden & The Devil's Violin

Saturday 17th June

8.30 – 8.50 Registration at The Waterfront Museum

Live Music Now

9.00 – 10.00 Keynote Speaker

Dan Yashinsky Toronto based Storyteller talking about Storycare - his work with older people

9.45 Coffee & Welsh cakes

11.00 – 13.00 Four Parallel Sessions

Volcano Theatre

Performances

Joseph Sobol performing Cancer Stories

Chronic Pain: A Comedy by Karma Waltonen

Reading Room, School of Architectural Glass, Alex Building

Creative Writing Workshop

Sarah Goodey from Healing Words, Elspeth Penny from Life of Breath and Vicky Field from The Poetry Practice

Dynevor School of Art Lecture Theatre

Panel Discussion on the mornings Keynote – storytelling with older people

Jac Saorsa discussing her residency in Cancer Ward 12 and viewing her Keynote Exhibition

Glynn Vivian Art Gallery Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion chaired by Steve Killick

Stories in Children's Health

Bevin Magma Storyteller from South Wales Autism

Fiona Collins Storyteller from North Wales

Vicky Pember & Amanda Smith from Readathon

Fruit Fly Collective working with Guys and St Thomas Hospitals, London Cancer

Nicola Grove founder of Open Storytellers and ABM Storyteller in Residence

Pauline Ashfield-Watt from Cardiff University Familial Hypercholesterolaemia

Glynn Vivian Art Gallery Learning Room

Children's workshop 11.00 -13.00 Please book a separate ticket - free for delegates children

13.00 – 14.30 LUNCH at Tapestri Cafe or Volcano

Meet the Artist Jac Saorsa in her exhibition in Dynevor Art School 1-1.30 Cancer

14.30 – 16.30 Four Parallel Sessions

Volcano Theatre

Workshop & Performance

Dramatherapy Workshop Melanie Beer & Gillian Downie

Dino Rovaretti long term impact of paediatric treatment

Reading Room, School of Architectural Glass, Alex Building

Open mic session led by Swansea Storytelling Club*

Found in Translation a performance by Carl Gough & Anthony Evans*

Dynevor School of Art Lecture Theatre

Keynote Speakers

Daniel Morden presents his reflections on storytelling in ill health Cancer

Final Keynote & Open Discussion Mike Wilson from Loughborough University

Glynn Vivian Art Gallery Lecture Theatre

Short presentations followed by open discussion

Stories at the End of Life

Allison Day from Musgrove Park Hospital, Taunton

Janet Dowling Storyteller, Writer, Life Coach

Cath Mather & Kath Smith from the Pass it On project in Northumbria Palliative Care Unit

Miranda Quinney from Sharing Stories for Wellbeing

Regi Carpenter Storyteller from North Carolina

Lesley Goodburn from Homeward Bound Project

Saturday Evening

17.00 – 21.00 Poetry performance and live music in Tapestri Cafe

For those who are staying in Swansea – a separate ticket is required for this event so that the cafe can prepare the right amount of food for sale. Tickets can be exchanged for a complimentary drink.

Specifically children friendly events *

Please Note numbers will be limited especially for workshops - places will be allocated on a first come basis. All sessions will be recorded for the conference convener's reference but not for distribution.